PRINCE OF WALES. Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clocks and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.

"As a sample of English clock-work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have ever been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfect or carefully-adjusted mechanism."-Times, June 11, 1862. "A triumph of ingenuity." Telegraph, March 31,

"A more splendid and exquisitely-finished piece of mechanism we have never seen, "--Stun-"Some of them are of great beauty; and if the English watch-trade only follow up with the same spirit and success this first attempt to compete with foreigners in decorative watches, there seems to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands."-Times, June "Ranged around the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an inspection."-Illustrated London News, November 8, WATCHES, adapted for every class, climate

The interior situation of Austria and Prussia is now very peculiar. The Lower Chamber of the Reichsrath has just disclaimed all responsibilit for the consequences that may flow from the policy of the Government in Denmark, and refused moneys to the full amount demanded. The Prussian Chamber of Deputies has not only censured the policy of the Government in regard to Denmark, but in regard to nearly everything else. The disapproval of the foreign policy of M. Dz BISMARK and Count RECHBERG arises from the fact that, in the opinion of the Parliamentary bodies, each Minister bas betrayed Germany, by refusing absolute obedience to the Frankfort Diet The house contains Drawing and Dining rooms, and by not carrying out a sufficietly insolent and aggressive policy towards Denmark! Under these circumstances M. DE BISMARK has made short work of the Prussian Chamber. He taunted and threatened the House in his own sarplaced on a Rock of Bronze-M. DE BISMARK peradventure ?- and all the votes and resolutions of the Chamber and its National Verein would not, shake the ruling power from that foundation. Yesterday Mr. DE BISMARK dismissed the Chamher, after scolding the deputies in a speech from the throne. They had done notling expected from them. They had stood on the very same ground-audaciously claiming the power of the 11WO NEW Houses, just finished, with Three- purse-which led to the dissolution of the prestories and Six Rooms each, having a good | ceding Chamber. They had wilfully and wantonly treason. They had refused to sanction a loan to sover the expense of Federal execution in Holstein, and to maintain the power of Pers in Above all they had censured, with more force than reason, the conduct of the Government in mononolising to itself and Austria the work of bullying Denmark. Here is a heavy bill of indictment. sufficient to show what is M. DE BISMARK's estimate of the duties of a House of Representives. namely, to register the acts and endorse the nolicy of the Ministry. For these sins of omission and commission the deputies are sent to their homes; the Government declaring that it deems To act without a Parliament? To appeal to the country, as opposed to the Parliament? Is that Prussia, in conjunction with Austria, is about to of the people, and to stand on simple despotism. This only one of the many signs of a breaking up and political danger without. The crazy old bark of the Confederation rolls heavily in the trough of the sea, without a pilot and without propelling force. Austria and Prussia trim their sails for inknown waters, while the crews and the cantain in each State are engaging in violent quarrels. The end is not yet, but the opening weeks of 1864 seem to be mute witnesses of its begin-
